

What makes you different from these victims?

Two teenagers killed in grain bin engulfment

An accident, which occurred on a farm where the two teenagers became engulfed in the grain bin. The investigation is currently ongoing.

Local resident dies from fall

An area man dies tragically after falling from a grain bin on Friday.

Local officials: "This tragedy could have been avoided"

Owners found negligent in grain bin deaths

After an extensive investigation, the property owner where a grain bin engulfment related fatality occurred were found to be negligent for not providing the necessary safety equipment and proper training for employees.

Area farmer loses leg in auger accident

"This shouldn't have happened to me"

According to the victim, it only took a few seconds for his life to change forever in a Friday morning accident.

No one is accident proof.

Take precautions when working in a grain bin.

Grain & Feed Association of Illinois