Background

The Safety•Health•Environmental Services program is a consulting and educational program that was specifically designed for members of the Grain and Feed Association of Illinois. It was started by the Association to assist members with information and compliance regarding OSHA, EPA and other safety, health and environmental regulations.

Safety Services

Safety Meetings	OSHA Consultation
Safety Audits	Newsletters
Safety Manual (customized)	Compliance Posters
Fire Department Training	OSHA Alliance

Environmental Services

Emission Report Assistance	Construction Permit Assistance
Operating Permit Assistance	Enforcement Compliance
Demolition Notifications	Storm Water Runoff
Direct Consultation with IEPA	Opacity Testing

UPDATE Newsletter

All members in the program receive UPDATE, the regulatory newsletter. UPDATE is published to provide timely safety information and keep members informed between visits about changes in rules and regulations.

Safety Manual

All members in the program receive a safety manual. The manual is full of guidelines, forms, policies, regulations and standards for you to utilize. This manual was designed for members of the program to help them organize the heavy volume of paperwork and forms needed to stay in compliance with today's regulations.

Meeting Topics

These are just a few of the many topics covered with members during their safety meetings:

- Fall Protection
- Bin Entry/Grain Suffocation
- Grain Dust Explosions/Fires
- Personal Electrical Safety
- Proactive Safety
- Lockout/Tagout Procedures
- Manlift Safety
- Confined Spaces vs. Permit Required Confined Spaces
- Machine Guarding/Entanglement Prevention
- Barge Loading Safety
- Grain Standard Review (1910.272)

Membership

Member benefits include one annual on-site safety meeting for employees; consultation with our Safety Director regarding compliance with safety, health and environmental regulations; a customized safety manual; and the UPDATE Newsletter. Annual fee is $1,500.00
